Turkey Hunt

We hosted two veterans referred by Operation TBI Freedom for this outing. They were anxious to try their luck at spring turkey hunting — one used a bow and the other a shotgun. Both participants are outdoorsmen, but it's been a while since they last hunted for turkeys. They had a great day out in the field and managed to harvest one bird. Big thanks to Collin who guided today, Infinite Outdoors USA who connected us with this opportunity, and Eric Engelhard for use of his property.
