Students Art League of Denver

We are all excited about the launch of our art classes which will be held once a month at the Students Art League of Denver. Our first class will be acrylic abstract and the following months will be taught by Karen Roehl, who does a great job guiding everyone thru their first painting which everyone will take home. Rachel Basye, the director of the school, has made sure this class was a great success and we are all looking forward to the next one. At the end of the class, we are treated to some great barbecue from Jim & Nicks Barbecue.

A big thanks to everyone who made this a fantastic class and evening.
